Several years ago Hae Lee enjoyed a vacation to Florida, she stayed with her mother at [REDACTED], Deland, Florida. It is conceivable that she might return there if she was unhappy or under stress or pressure.

Her relatives here in Maryland do not know if her father has entered the country illegally and might have contacted Hae Lee. Friends:

Adnan Syed: Student at Woodlawn High School. Muslim. (Sect unknown)
Ethnic Background: Unknown. Known to be religious. Her diary states "His religion is his life's driving force" He has risked parental disapproval by dating a non-Muslim girl. He is known to be possessive and domineering but not necessarily violent. It has been said that he smoked marijuana when in crisis after a friend died suddenly in an accident, but he does not seem to be a habitual drug user. He is athletic, good student and was Prom Prince as a high school junior in 1998. According to Det. O'Shea he did not know Hae Lee was dating Don [REDACTED]. Syed's parents were upset about the police interview taking place.

Donald [REDACTED]: Co-worker and new boyfriend. Contacted both by police and by Mandy [REDACTED]. Mr. [REDACTED] appeared mature, articulate but not overly concerned. Although helpful and polite he did not sound in any way emotionally concerned with Hae Lee's disappearance. He felt she had gone to California to be with her father. But he did state that he hoped she would contact him. He did say that she had a girlfriend whose parents were away on vacation for the week (ending 1/16). He did not know who it was but offered the information "just in case".

Aisha [REDACTED]: Black Female, also student at Woodlawn High School. Probably Hae Min's best friend. Nothing unusual reported in Hae Min's diary. [REDACTED] seems to be a good student who was concerned about Hae Lee's preoccupation with Adnan Syed. Their friendship was not as close after Hae Lee began dating him.

Tori [REDACTED] and Marie [REDACTED] are two other fellow students and friends from school.

Summary:

The following information has been provided by Det. Sgt. O'Shea;

Hae Min Lee was last seen in the Gym at Woodlawn High School in Baltimore County on Wednesday, January 13th, 1999 at approximately 3 PM by her friend, Debbie [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] claims Hae Min told her that she was going to pick up her niece at a nearby kindergarten. Ms. [REDACTED] states that Hae Min was alone at that time.

At 2.15 PM. Hae Min was seen by Mr. Adnan Syed, a boyfriend, as well as a girlfriend, Aisha [REDACTED] in class. All friends note that Hae Min was in good spirits and did not appear angry or depressed.

Hae Min did not pick up her niece at Canfield Kindergarten nor did she report for work at Lenscrafters. When the kindergarten staff called Hae Min's uncle, [REDACTED] Kim, to notify him that his daughter was still with them and that his niece had not yet picked her up. Subsequent attempts to locate Hae Min Lee were made and the police were called at approximately 5 PM

A missing persons report was taken by Office Adcock at 5.15 PM. Mandy [REDACTED], Director of the Enehey Group, spoke with Hae Lee's colleague at Lenscrafters, Donald R. [REDACTED]. Hae Lee had recently begun dating Mr. [REDACTED] and she seemed very enthusiastic about their relationship. He stated that they had gone out together the night before her disappearance January 12th, 1999. He confirmed that this was the last time he saw her. He said that he called her later to assure she had arrived home safely. During the date, he claims she told him that she'd had an argument with her mother earlier that day and that she had expressed the desire to live with her father in California. When asked how she would accomplish this, Mr. [REDACTED] seemed to think she would either drive there or leave her car in the Satellite Parking Facility at BWI Airport and fly by commercial airline to California. He did not appear as enthused about their relationship as Hae Lee's diary indicates that she was.
