

DATE: 04/12/15

TIME: 134826

DURATION: 004543 RM: 5

Detectives Joe Poremski & Mike Boyd

Subject: Kevin Moore

-down there of his own free will

-the video recorded a portion of incident on his phone

-he is the owner of the phone

Produces phone and locates the video he recorded

-suspect heard yelling and saying get off me yo, get off my arm and continues yelling throughout

-person recording is saying that they tased the fuck out of him and telling the suspect don't worry about it

-inaudible sounds

-others persons heard yelling at officers in the background

-gave them permission to download video from the phone and the passcode to cell phone

-said he didn't catch any of the illegal stuff

-he didn't really get anything illegal (but never specifies if anything illegal occurred)

Boyd asked what prompted him to come out

-he was in the house talking to his wife when he heard noise

-a person who he does not want to name yelled they tasing him they tasing him

-he runs out immediately and starts recording

-the officer held him in a crab position and when they stood him up his legs were so limp

-you could tell his legs were broken

-he ran to the corner of presbury and mount and he observes them tasing him

-he can see the prongs in his legs

-it was a white officer medium build, low cut hair, no glasses, regular uniform

1/10/07

- he was huge
 - the guys with the bike are gone
 - after he hit him he saw them and tried to cover him
 - he was standing 6/7 car lengths behind him
 - he only saw him tased once it sounded like electricity
 - the suspect was never standing his legs were broke, but he's not a medic
 - they put him back in the medic
 - the guys on the bike pulled up again
 - one of his friends who he does not know his name was also recording
 - the taser was black and gold with silver bars at the bottom
 - there were at least 10 other people around
 - the second time the whole neighborhood was out there
 - the second time they dragged him out by his feet the suspect was on his back
 - one of the persons who took him out was the one tasing him
 - he didn't see the officer drawing his taser but he heard it
 - they tased him in his legs
 - after they tased him they removed the taser he doesn't know which one
 - they threw him back into the van on his back
 - no officers got in the van with him
 - one of the officers was of Hispanic descent
 - he doesn't know the other officer ethnicity
 - it was totally different officers the second time
 - none of them were the original guys from the bike unit
 - the wagon left and went straight down mount str
- Concluded no time given