

BriAnne,

Hey Baby Girl, I'm sitting here at work with you on my mind as always, I really think that you need to sit and think about what is going on, Today when that happened you started crying ~~like~~ it was like you were dissapointed in what happened! you never ~~acted~~ acted like that before I'm sorry! you used to always have a big smile on your face. I don't know where I'm gonna stay tonight so I probably won't be able to talk to you. Bri Anne I love you with all of my heart and nothing makes me happier than to see you happy like you are now! Isaac seems to make you happy please beautiful think about this. It would hurt me worse to see you fight with your family about me and be ~~upset~~ upset, than ~~to be~~ ~~with~~ for you to be with Isaac and be happy. We always turn out together in the end. Just remember I love you and you will always be my beautiful Baby Girl!

Love,

Greg Walker AKA you know!
