

INTERVIEW WITH VANDORA BAKER

BK: Where were you at in the church?

VB: I had turned around, you know, I had turned around and I seen him.

BK: What made you turn around or why did you turn around?

VB: When we heard the shooting.

BK: Okay.

VB: -inaudible- he say he want to talk to somebody you know, then we turned around, I turned around and I seen him. That when he start shootin.

BK: Tell me, if you would, just what you saw.

VB: I just glimpsed him and then I heard the shootin and I start runnin.

BK: What did he look like?

VB: I didn't really get a good glimpse of him. I just know he was a white man, hair about right here.

BK: That's, shoulder length?

VB: Yea. That's all I just seen his face, his hair and the jacket.

BK: What did his face look like? Would you know him if you saw him again? Do you think that you could describe him well enough to me that I could make a composit? I would be very important if you could. If you think you can I need it. We can put a composit together and then we can compare all of them and get the ones that are similar. You don't know what he was wearing, or do you?

VB: No, I don't know what. I know he had on a jacket.

BK: All right. Did you see the pistol?

VB: No, I didn't see the pistol, I just heard the shootin. I know I heard some shootin.

BK: You didn't, you didn't see him use either hand? You couldn't tell how tall he was?

VB: Uh uh. -inaudible- everybody runnin.

BK: Your social security number?

VB: 255-96-0186.
